To avoid imminent food crisis, Pyongyang urged to be more receptive to international aid

By Stephan Haggard

The incoming Lee Myung-bak government was forced to close the North Korean side. It is virtually disappeared and may never return. The incoming Lee Myung-bak government was forced to close the North Korean side. It is virtually disappeared and may never return.