

The IMF: What is It Good for?

Tuesday, April 8, 2014

Bergsten Conference Center, Peterson Institute for International Economics

Agenda

- 12:00 – 12:15 Registration and luncheon buffet
- 12:15 – 12:30 Opening
Welcome: Marcus Noland, Executive Vice President and Director of Studies, PIIE
Introduction: Charles Collyns, Managing Director and Chief Economist, IIF
Domenico Lombardi, Director, Global Economy Program, CIGI
- 12:30 – 1:45 Luncheon panel: IMF surveillance and crisis prevention
Moderator: Hung Tran, Executive Managing Director, IIF
Speakers: James Boughton, Senior Fellow, CIGI
Fred Bergsten, Director Emeritus and Senior Fellow, PIIE
Adam Lerrick, Visiting Scholar, American Enterprise Institute
Maziar Minovi, Managing Director, Goldman Sachs Investment Management
- 1:45 – 2:00 Coffee Break
- 2:00 – 3:00 IMF role in crisis resolution including debt restructuring
Moderator: Domenico Lombardi, Director, Global Economy Program, CIGI
Speakers: Anna Gelpern, Nonresident Senior Fellow, PIIE, and Georgetown Law
Susan Schadler, Senior Fellow, CIGI
Hung Tran, Executive Managing Director, IIF
- 3:00 – 3:15 Coffee Break
- 3:15 – 4:15 IMF reforms including governance, resources and relationship with regional financial institutions
Moderator: Adam Posen, President, PIIE
Speakers: Thomas Bernes, Distinguished Fellow, CIGI
Charles Collyns, Managing Director and Chief Economist, IIF
Athanasios Orphanides, former Governor, Central Bank of Cyprus
Edwin Truman, Nonresident Senior Fellow, PIIE
- 4:15 Closing: Adam Posen, President, PIIE